MALLET KNOCKED OUT IN THIRD ROUND

The twenty round prize fight in Dawson a few days ago, ended in the third round, Kid Mallett, the home man, being knocked out by Jimmy Garrey, of Trinidad. While the go lasted it was a very fast fight. Mallett was about ten pounds the heavier, but was outclassed. He put up a game fight and stood a great deal of punishment.

The first round was very fast, both men being at it hammer and tongs. This was Garrey's round.
In the second the honors were about even. Mallett did his best fighting in this round. The third round went thirty seconds when Garrey handed Mallett the sleep producer. It was a clean knockout.

Garrey said he was well pleased with the way he was treated while in Dawson. The go was fought before about two hundred people.

The first preliminary was won by Harry Pepin defeating Fritz Shef-fard, the second was a draw between Pete Pope and Luf Boss-field, and the third between Shag Shay and George Fortune was also a draw.--Cimarron News and Press.

Some Business in the Land Office.

Hon. Edward Fox informs us that this month's business in the land office at this place is a record breaker. Over fourteen hundred filings have been made during the month, besides a large number of contests and final proofs and a thousand questions to answer. So you can see that the land office people have a right to be busy.— Clayton Citizen.

The Turquoise.

New Mexico's native gem is the turquoise, one of the most beautiful of stones, with a soft color that is as unmatchable as is the green-blue water of Niagara which has never been well imitated. Its rarest shades are not unlike those of the turquoise and both are rivals in beauty of color and the sky of azure and the cloud of rose—every woman of New Mexico, whether by birth or adoption, should possess a turquoise—a dainty bit of tender blue in gold, like a lake in a ripened wheatfield, to show her loyalty to the land in whose breast the stone has lain for ages.

The turquoise, our fair native gem,
Should deck the brow—the breast
Of New Mexico's fair daughters,
In this land they love the best,
Should gleam in sun and shadow
As the eyes of a nestling dove,
A shining azure symbol
A pledge of loyal love.
